HERMES' DILEMMA
AND HAMLET'S DESIRE

On the Epistemology of Interpretation

Vincent Crapanzano

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Cambridge, Massachusetts, and London, England
1992
Contents

Introduction 1

I The Textualized Self 25
  1. Centering 27
  2. Hermes' Dilemma 43
  3. The Self, the Third, and Desire 70
  4. Self-Characterization 91

II The Dialogic Self 113
  5. Text, Transference, and Indexicality 115
  6. Talking (about) Psychoanalysis 136
  7. Mohammed and Dawia 155
  8. Dialogue 188

III The Experienced Self 217
  9. Symbols and Symbolizing 219
  10. Glossing Emotions 229
  11. Saints, Jnun, and Dreams 239
  12. Rite of Return 260

IV The Submerged Self 281
  13. Maimed Rites and Wild and Whirling Words 283

Notes 317

References 357

Index 377