Table of Contents

Foreword, Michael Vorbeck
Editors' Preface

PART 1
General Introduction; From conception to realization
Prof. Dr. Franz J. Mönks, The Netherlands ........................................ 13

Final Report
Drs. Herman W. van Boxtel, The Netherlands ........................................ 22

PART 2: COMMISSIONED PAPERS
Can early reading lead to academic prowess?
Prof. Dr. Åke W. Edfeldt, Sweden .................................................. 47

Recent developments for the highly able in Britain
Dr. Joan Freeman, United Kingdom ............................................. 58

Giftedness research and education of the gifted and talented in Germany
Prof. Dr. Kurt A. Heller, Germany ............................................. 71

Intellectually and educationally advanced children: A few theoretical and practical indicators of the situation in Switzerland and France
Prof. Dr. Laurence Rieben, Switzerland ........................................ 86

Problems of the education of gifted children in the countries of Middle East Europe
Dr. Andrzej Sękowski, Poland .................................................. 104

Concepts of giftedness, and research into the education of gifted children in the Netherlands
Prof. Dr. Pieter Span, The Netherlands ........................................ 118

PART 3: SELECTED BACKGROUND PAPERS
İnanç Lycee - A provision for the intellectually gifted children of economically disadvantaged families
Dr. Füsun Akarsu, Turkey ....................................................... 139

Organisation model of the selection, education and development of creative abilities of gifted children in Azerbaijan
Prof. Dr. Vagif G. Alikperov, Azerbaijan .................................... 141

Research on the gifted in Italy
Prof. Dr. Ornella Andreani Dentici, Italy .................................... 148
Gifted Girls: A case of wasted talent?
Dr. Rosemary Ayles, United Kingdom ........................................... 157

Gifted children: Research and education in Spain
Dr. Javier Berchê Cruz & Leopoldo Carreras Truño, Spain .................... 162

Mathematical giftedness - Some questions to be answered
Dr. Vladimir Burjan, Czechoslovakia .............................................. 165

The educational system of gifted and talented people in Romania
Dr. Carmen Cretu, Romania .......................................................... 171

The research on talent in Slovakia
Dr. Vladimir Dočkal, Jolana Laznibatová & Dr. Tomáš Kováč, Czechoslovakia .................................................... 177

Programmes for highly able children in Austria
Magr. Barbara Grillmayr, Austria ................................................... 180

Different pupils - different teaching
Prof. Dr. Mogens Jansen, Denmark ................................................ 186

Research on and education of the gifted youth in Yugoslavia
Slavica Maksić, Yugoslavia .......................................................... 193

A new era in education: England and Wales in the 1990's
Johanna M. Raffan & Michael Short, United Kingdom ....................... 198

Measuring divergent abilities
Jasmina Šefer, Yugoslavia .......................................................... 203

Gifted children: Research and education in France
Jean-Charles Terrassier, France ..................................................... 212

Teaching gifted children and adolescents, and related research in Finland
Jouni Välijärvi, Finland .............................................................. 217

PART 4: SPECIAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Managing education for talent development
John Raven, Scotland ................................................................. 225

Literature on giftedness; Where to search, what to expect
Ernst A. Hany & Gerhard W. Hany, Germany .................................. 236

LIST OF PARTICIPANTS .............................................................. 249