CONTENTS

Abbreviations ................................................................. xix
List of transliterations ................................................... xxi
Acknowledgments ........................................................... xxiii
Introduction ................................................................. xxv

SECTION ONE

SELECTED SOURCES FOR THE STUDY OF
SOUTH ASIAN MUSLIM WOMEN

A. South Asia an Introduction .............................................. 1
   I. Locating People and Spaces ........................................ 1
      (a) General Studies on South Asia ............................... 1
      (b) Selected Studies on Islam in South Asia .................. 3
      (c) Encyclopaedias of Islam ..................................... 5
      (d) Encyclopaedias of Muslim Women .......................... 6
      (e) Dictionaries of Islam ......................................... 6
      (f) Qur'ān/Hadith/ and Traditions of Prophet
          Muhammad .......................................................... 7
   II. Bibliographies and Research Guides for the Study of South Asian Muslim Women .................................... 8
   III. Bibliographic Review Essays .................................... 15
   IV. Catalogues of Library Holdings .................................. 16
   V. Biographical Compendiums of Prominent Muslim
       Women .......................................................................... 18
   VI. Invisibility of Muslim Women in Research Studies .......... 19

B. Women's Status in Religious Texts .................................... 22
   I. Women's Status in the Qur'ān .................................... 22
   II. Rejecting Patriarchal Reading of the Qur'ān .................. 27
   III. Status of Women in the Hadith .................................. 30
   IV. Role Models for Muslim Women: Prophet's Wives and Daughters ......................................................... 33
SECTION TWO

MUSLIM WOMEN IN THE HISTORY OF SOUTH ASIA

A. Women in Medieval India .................................................. 35
   I. General Studies ......................................................... 35
   II. Radhiyyah Sultan or Raziyat al-Dunya wal-Din
       (r. 1236-40) .......................................................... 36
   III. Cand Bibi of the Nizam Shahi Kingdom
        (b. 1547-1600) and Other Women in Power in the Deccan ................................................................. 38

B. Women in the Age of the Mughals (1526-1707) ............. 41
   I. General Studies ......................................................... 41
   II. Gulbadan Bano Begam (1522/3-1603), Daughter of Babur, Emperor of Hindustan (1526-1530) ................ 49
   III. Nur Jahan Begam (d. 1645), wife of Emperor
       Jahangir (b. 1569-d. 1627) ........................................ 50
   IV. Mumtaz Mahal (1592-1631), Wife of Emperor
       Shah Jahan (b. 1592-d. 1666) ................................... 55
   V. Jahan Ara Begam (b. 1614-d. 1681), Daughter of Emperor Shah Jahan ................................................. 56
   VI. Zeb-un Nisa' Begam (1638-1702) Daughter of Emperor Aurangzeb, (b. 1619-d. 1707) ....................... 57

C. Mughal Women as Patrons of Art and Architecture .......... 59

D. Muslim Women from the 18th to the Early 20th
   Century India .............................................................. 62
   I. The Kingdom of Awadh (1722-1856) ................... 62
   II. Muslim Women in the Kingdom of Bengal ............... 68
   III. A dynasty of women rulers: The Begams of Bhopal .. 70
       (a) General works .................................................. 70
       (b) Nawwab Qudsiyâh Begam (Period of Regency
           1819-1837) ...................................................... 71
       (c) Nawwab Sikandar Begam (Regency 1843-1868) ... 72
       (d) Nawwab Shahjahân Begam (b. 1838-d. 1901) ..... 72
       (e) Nawwab Sultan Jahân Begam (b. 1858-d. 1930) .... 74
   IV. Begam Samru (also spelt as Sombre/Samru)
       (1753-1836) of Sardhana ........................................ 79
   V. Women in Hyderabad, Deccan .................................... 82
E. Muslim Women's Encounter with the West .................................. 85
I. Women and the First War of Independence, 1858 .......... 85
II. Women under the British Colonial Regime .................... 86
III. Muslim Women in the Narratives of the Christian
    Missions ............................................................................. 91

SECTION THREE

ISLAMIC TRADITIONS, MUSLIM WOMEN
AND THE REFORM MOVEMENT

A. Women in the Discourse of the sufis and the masha'ikhi ........ 99
I. Women sufis ......................................................................... 102
II. Women's Image in Sufi Literature ...................................... 112
III. Women in the Reformist (iṣlāhi) Traditions in the 18th and the 19th Centuries ................................................ 113
    (a) Women, shari'at and the bid'at Discourse .............. 113
    (b) Patriarchal Construction of Muslim Women .......... 115
B. Modernist Reform Movements and Women's Issues .......... 118
I. Men in Support of Women's Rights ...................................... 118
    (a) Making Connections: Role Models from Other
        Muslim Societies ............................................................ 120
    (b) South Asian Muslim Women Compared With
        Women in Other Regions .............................................. 123
II. Ideal Muslim Woman Defined ............................................ 125
    (a) Sir Syed Ahmed Khan's (1817-1898)
        'Model Muslim Woman' .............................................. 125
    (b) Syed Ameer Ali (1849-1928) .................................... 126
    (c) Saiyyid Muntaz Ali and huqūq un-niswān
        (1860-1935) .................................................................. 127
    (d) Rashidul Khairt (1868-1936) ................................. 128
III. Muslim Woman in the New Muslim Consciousness ........ 129
    (a) The Bihishti Zewar of Ashraf 'Ali Thanawi
        (1864-1943) .................................................................. 129
    (b) Abul Kalām Azad's Views on the Status of
        Women ........................................................................... 132
    (c) Dr. Muhammad Iqbal (1877-1938) ......................... 133
IV. Women Claiming their Rights .......................................... 134
SECTION FOUR

PARDAH—MUSLIM WOMEN IN/OUT OF SECLUSION

A. Discourse on the Interpretation of the Qur'anic Verses on hājab ................................................................. 137
B. Fatawa and Male Religious Opinions on Veiling/pardah ...... 138
   I. Male supporters of pardah ........................................ 143
   II. Men who opposed the pardah ................................. 145
C. Women Challenging pardah Restrictions .......................... 148
   I. Women in Support of pardah .................................. 151
D. Pardah's Impact on Women's Lives ............................... 151
E. Burqa' .................................................................... 161
F. Life Inside Pardah Households Observing ....................... 162

SECTION FIVE

RELIGIOUS PRACTICES

A. Fatawa: Male Authority and Women's Status .................... 166
   I. Resisting the Use of Fatawa against Women ................. 169
B. Prohibition on Women's Presence in the Mosque and Shrines .............................................................. 171
C. Women's Prayer (ṣalat) .............................................. 172
   I. Women and Ḥāl Prayers .......................................... 174
   II. Shrine Visitation and Women ................................. 175
D. Women and Religious Practices .................................. 177
   I. Milād nāmey/Milād Tracts for Women and by Women ................................................................. 181
   II. Milād or Mawlid sharīf: Celebrations of Prophet Muhammad's Noble Birth ...................... 182
   III. Milād as bid'at (Heresy) ....................................... 184
E. Hajj and Women Pilgrims: Early Pilgrimage Accounts
   (Medieval India) .................................................... 184
   I. Pilgrimage in the Nineteenth Century ....................... 185
   II. Pilgrimage in the Twentieth Century ...................... 187
F. Women's Travelogues: Women out of pardah .................. 187
SECTION SIX
IN SEARCH OF THEIR IDENTITY:
MUSLIM WOMEN SETTING NEW GOALS

A. Perspectives on Women’s Roles ............................................. 189
   I. The Status of Muslim Women Compared to that of Women of Other Faiths .................................................. 192
   II. Women and Activism: Movement for Social and Political Change ............................................................. 193
       (a) General Works ......................................................... 193
       (b) The Suffrage Movement ............................................. 197
B. Muslim Women Making Connections ..................................... 201
   I. In support of the Ladies Conference ................................. 201
   II. Against the Ladies Conference ...................................... 204
   III. History of the All India Muslim Ladies’ Conference ....... 205
   IV. The All India Ladies Association .................................. 208
   V. Women’s Associations in Hyderabad, Deccan ................. 209
   VI. The All India Women’s Conference ................................. 211
   VII. Muslim Women in the National Reformist
        Movement ................................................................. 212
          (a) Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain (1880–1932) ............... 212
          (b) Šughra Humayun Mirza (1884–1958) ................. 215
          (c) Fyzee Sisters ..................................................... 217
C. Women’s Role in the Pakistan Movement ............................ 218
D. Freedom/Partition: Women’s Experiences ............................ 223
   I. Women Freedom Fighters .............................................. 226
      (a) Abādī Banu Begam (Bī Amman) (1852–1924) ......... 226
      (b) Begam Muhammad Ali (Amjadi Begam) ................. 228
      (c) Begam Hasrat Mohant (Nishatunnisa)
          (1885–1937) ...................................................... 229
      (d) Fatimah Jinnah (1893–1967) ................................. 230
      (e) Ruttie Jinnah (-d. 1929) ....................................... 232
SECTION SEVEN
WOMEN, NATIONALISM, AND RELIGION

A. Muslim women in Pakistan: An Overview ....................... 233
   I. Punjabi Women ................................................. 240
   II. Sindhi Women ................................................ 241
   III. Pashtun Women .............................................. 244
   IV. Baloch Women ................................................ 247
   V. Women of Hunza/Gilgit/Chitral .............................. 249
B. Women in Bangladesh: An Overview ................................ 251
C. Muslim Women in India: An Overview ............................ 255
D. Women, State and Religious Authority: Post-independence
   South Asia .................................................................. 256
   I. The Case of Pakistan ........................................... 257
   II. The Case of Bangladesh ......................................... 259
   III. The Case of India ............................................... 261
E. Women and Political Representation ............................... 263
   I. Discourse on Women’s Political Leadership ................. 266
      (a) Benazir Bhutto ................................................. 267
F. The Martial Law (1977–88) in Pakistan:
   Islam Reinterpreted for Women ..................................... 268
   I. The Hudood (Hudud) Ordinance ................................ 278
   II. Post-martial Law Gender-identity Construction ............. 276
G. Religious Activism of Women Converts to Islam ............... 277
   I. Maryam Jameelah [Margaret Marcus] (1936–) ............... 277

SECTION EIGHT MUSLIM WOMEN’S MOVEMENTS IN SOUTH ASIA

A. Women’s Movement in Pakistan ..................................... 279
B. Women’s Movement in Bangladesh .................................. 281
C. Muslim Women’s Movement in India ............................... 284
D. Muslim Women in Sri Lanka ......................................... 290
E. Women’s Movement in The Maldives ............................... 292
SECTION NINE

THE LIFE CYCLE OF SOUTH ASIAN MUSLIM WOMEN

A. Daughters Not Liked .................................................. 293
   I. Son Preference .................................................... 294
   II. Adolescent Girls ................................................ 297
       (a) Menstruation ................................................ 305
       (b) Clitorodectomy: Female Circumcision ................... 308

B. Marriage and Family Life ........................................... 309
   I. Child Marriages ................................................... 309
   II. Age at Marriage .................................................. 310
   III. Nikāh: Marriage in Islam ...................................... 312
   IV. Selection of Spouses ............................................ 313
   V. Role of wali (Guardian) in a Marriage Contract ........... 313

C. Wife-husband Relationship .................................... 315
   I. Male-female Attitude Towards Family Life ................ 316
   II. Manuals for Household Management ....................... 317

D. Marriage Patterns in South Asia ................................. 318
   I. Arranged Marriages ............................................. 320
   II. Consanguineous Marriages .................................... 321
   III. Endogamous Marriages ......................................... 322
   IV. Matrilineral Customs .......................................... 324
   V. Muslim Women Marrying Christian Men .................... 324
   VI. Polygamy .......................................................... 325
    VII. Muta'h: Temporary Marriages ............................... 328

E. Wedding Ceremonies and Celebrations ......................... 329
   I. Dowry ............................................................. 332

F. Pregnancy and Childbirth ........................................... 334
   I. Motherhood/Childcare ......................................... 336
   II. Breastfeeding ................................................... 337

G. End of Marriage: Widowhood, Remarriage of Widows and Divorce .................................................. 339
   I. Iddā—Waiting Period ............................................ 339
   II. Dissolution of Marriage: talāq (Divorce) .................. 341
   III. Triple talāq ..................................................... 344
    IV. Talāq-i-tafwid (delegation Power of Divorce) ........... 345
      V. Khul' (khula) ................................................ 346
     VI. Apostasy (irridād) for Dissolution (tansikh-i-nikāh)
         of Marriage ................................................ 348
H. Mahr: Dower .......................................................................................... 352
   I. Payment of mahr and Maintenance for Divorced Women ........................................ 354
   II. Legal Battles over Payment of Maintenance (nafqah): The Shah Bano Case .................. 354

SECTION TEN
WOMEN'S RIGHTS TO INherit PROPERTY

A. Inheritance Rights of Muslim Women
   Misappropriated .................................................................................. 358
   I. Customary Law (riwaj-i 'am) and Women ........................................ 361
   II. Legal Services for Women: Access to Lawyers and Courts of Law ......................... 364

B. Muslim Family Law in South Asia ...................................................... 367
   I. The Family Laws in Pakistan .......................................................... 368
   II. Uniform Civil Code in India: A Panacea for Muslim Women's Plight? ....................... 374
   III. Legal Reforms in Bangladesh ....................................................... 379
   IV. Islamic Laws and Women in Sri Lanka ........................................... 380

SECTION ELEVEN
EDUCATION OF SOUTH ASIAN MUSLIM WOMEN

A. General Works on the History of Women's Education .......... 382
B. Beginning of Women's New System of Education:
   Local Enterprise and Colonial Efforts .................................................. 383
   I. Promotional Tracts for Female Education ........................................ 383
   II. Tracts against Women's Education .................................................. 387
C. Supporters of Women's Education (hami-yi tālim-i niswān) .. 388
   I. Khawajah Altaf Husain Hali (1837–1914) ...................................... 388
   II. Shamsul 'Ulama Maulawi Nadīr (also spelt as Nazir) Ahmad, (1831–1912) .............. 389
D. Those Who Opposed School Education for Women ............. 390
   I. Sir Syed [also spelt as Saiyyid] Ahmed Khan .................................. 390
   II. Other Prominent Opposition ......................................................... 394
E. Support for Women’s Education in the Early 20th Century 394
   I. Male Founders of Schools for Women .................................. 397
      (a) Shaikh ‘Abdullah (1874–1965) ..................................... 397
      (b) Maulana Karamat Husain (1854–1917) ......................... 399
   II. Female Founders of Schools for Women .............................. 399
      (a) Rokeya Sakhawat Hossain (1880–1932) ....................... 399
      (b) Nawwab Sultan Jahan Begam .................................. 400
F. Nineteenth Century Muslim Women Reading and Teaching ......................................................... 401
   I. New School Education for Girls ........................................ 404
   II. Western Women and Muslim Women’s Education ............... 406
G. Women’s Education: in Post-1947 South Asia ......................... 407
   I. Women’s Education in Pakistan ...................................... 407
   II. Women’s Education in Bangladesh ................................. 411
   III. Women’s Education in India ...................................... 413
H. Medical education for women ............................................ 414
   I. Beginning of Medical Education in the 19th Century .......... 414
   II. Early Medical Texts and Literature for Women .............. 418
   III. Early Hospitals for Women ....................................... 419
   IV. Women and the Nursing Profession: the Current Scene ........ 420
   V. Traditional Birth Attendants (dāi’s) ............................... 422

SECTION TWELVE
SOUTH ASIAN MUSLIM WOMEN’S HEALTH

A. Women’s Physical Health Status ........................................ 425
   I. Women with Disabilities ........................................... 426
   II. Mental Health Status ............................................... 427
   III. Nutrition for Women .............................................. 429
   IV. Health Care for Women ............................................ 429
   V. Gender Bias in Female Healthcare ................................ 431
   VI. Maternal and Infant Health ...................................... 433
B. Reproductive Health and Women’s Choices ........................... 434
   I. Birth Spacing ....................................................... 436
   II. Use of Contraceptives and Women’s Reproductive Health .... 437
   III. Religious Opinion and Birth Control ............................ 443
IV. Abortion ............................................. 445
V. Women’s Fertility: Effects Caused by Education .... 447
   (a) Fertility and Employment ............................. 449
   (b) Fertility and Women’s Labour Force Participation 450
   (c) Female Fertility Trends in South Asia ............... 451
   (d) Socio-economic Determinants of Fertility .......... 456
   (e) Fertility and Family Planning Programmes .......... 458
   (f) Attitudes towards Family Planning .................. 463
   (g) Fertility Decline ................................... 464

SECTION THIRTEEN
PERSPECTIVES ON SOUTH ASIAN
WOMEN’S DEVELOPMENT

A. Women and Development in Pakistan .................. 446
   I. Rural Women and Development in Pakistan .......... 468
   II. Urban Women in Pakistan ........................... 472
B. Women and Development in Bangladesh ................ 472
   I. Rural Women and Development in Bangladesh ...... 476
   II. Urban Women in Bangladesh ......................... 482
C. Economic Status of Women ................................ 483
   I. Texts on Women and Works Written in the 19th Century ........................................ 483
   II. Muslim Women and Poverty in South Asia ......... 484
   III. Women and Work in Bangladesh .................... 486
   IV. Rural Credit Programmes/Grameen Bank in Bangladesh ........................................ 492
V. Women and Work in Pakistan ............................ 494
VI. Women, and Banking in Pakistan ...................... 501
VII. Muslim Women and Work in India ..................... 501
VIII. Women’s Self Employment ............................. 502
XI. Women and Handicrafts .................................. 503
CONTENTS

SECTION FOURTEEN

THE ARTS AND DESIGN

A. Women and literature ........................................ 506
   I. Women’s Language ......................................... 506
   II. Men Impersonating Women’s Voices: rekhtā (rexti) .... 508
   III. Urdu Periodicals for Women ............................. 509
   IV. Women in the Folk Tales .................................. 510
   V. Women’s Images in Literature: dastān .................. 512
   VI. Women's Portrayal in Contemporary South Asian
        Writings .................................................. 512
    VII. Novels and Short Stories of Muslim Women Writers 514
    VIII. Women Poets .......................................... 521
           (a) Mah Laqā Bā’r Čanda (1798–1824) ............... 521
           (b) Zahīdā Khātim Sharwānī (1894–?) ............... 523
           (c) General Studies on Women Poets .................. 524
           (d) Contemporary Poets ................................ 526
   IX. Autobiographies by Women ............................... 528
   X. Biased Images of Women in Textbooks .................. 530
B. Women and Love in Urdu Literature ......................... 530
   I. Love and Pain ............................................ 530
   II. Same-sex Relations: Reflections from Urdu Writings 531
C. Women and Arts and Design ................................... 534
   I. Women Painters .......................................... 534
   II. Women Calligraphists .................................... 536
D. Music/Dance .................................................. 537
E. Women’s Textile and Jewellery ................................ 538
F. Film and Media ............................................. 540

SECTION FIFTEEN

CHALLENGES, THREATS, AND THE
RESPONSES OF WOMAN

A. Violence against Women ..................................... 544
   I. Rape Crimes ............................................... 550
   II. Trafficking of Women ..................................... 554
   III. Karo-Kari: Murdering Women for 'Honour' ............ 555
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>B. Women, War and Conflict</td>
<td>557</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Prostitution</td>
<td>557</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. Crimes by Women</td>
<td>564</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. Criminal Justice System and Women</td>
<td>565</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E. Women's Responses: Non-government Organizations</td>
<td>567</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. All Pakistan Women's Association</td>
<td>572</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SECTION SIXTEEN</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>FEMINISM, NEW SCHOLARSHIP AND NEW TOOLS FOR DEVELOPMENT</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A. Early Voices of Feminism</td>
<td>575</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B. Feminism in the 20th Century</td>
<td>576</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I. Taslima Nasrin—A Feminist?</td>
<td>579</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C. Patriarchy Today</td>
<td>581</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D. New Scholarship for Women</td>
<td>582</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E. Women Teaching/Learning Islam</td>
<td>584</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Subject Index</td>
<td>589</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Author Index</td>
<td>599</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>