Contents

Preface
Helmut Reifeld 7

Introduction
Family: A Gendering and Gendered Space
Margrit Pernau 9

I Social History of the Family 35
1. Between the Ideal and the Real: Gender Relations within the Indian Joint Family
   Imtiaz Ahmad 36
2. The Persisting Image versus Economic and Demographic Changes: The Three-Generation Household in Europe
   Gunilla-Friederike Budde 64
3. The Diverse Life-worlds of Indian Childhood
   Vasanthi Raman 84

II Images and Symbolic Practices 112
4. The Householder, grhastha, in the Mahabharata
   Chaturvedi Badrinath 113
5. Motherhood and Female Identity: Religious Advice Literature for Women in German Catholicism and Indian Islam
   Margrit Pernau 140
6. Changing Masculinities in Central Europe: Duelling and its Aftermath
   Ute Frevert 162
7. Virtuous Mother, Virile Hero and Warrior Queen: The Conception of Gender and Family in Hindutva
Katharina Poggendorf-Kakar 179

III The Family and the State
8. Gender and Family: State Intervention in India
Nandini Azad 198
9. State Interest in the Family: Social Change and Social Policy in Germany
Helmut Reifeld 224
10. Gender in Governance: Women, Family and the Constitutional Panchayats of Contemporary India
Shail Mayaram 242

IV Fault Lines
11. The Marginal Families
Nirmala Banerjee 278
12. Politics of Gender and Class: Women in Indian Industries
Samita Sen 296
13. Private Crimes and Public Sanction: Violence against Women in the Family
Ü. Vindhya 322

About the Editors and Contributors
Index