ISLAMIC RENAISSANCE IN SOUTH ASIA 1707-1867

The Role of Shāh Wali Allāh and His Successors

MAHMOOD AHMAD GHAZI

Islamic Research Institute
International Islamic University
Islamabad
Contents

Transliteration table xi

Acknowledgements xiii

Preface xv

Foreword xix

Introduction 1

PART 1

THE HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

1. The Muslim community in South Asia: From the advent of Islam to 1707 13

2. The Socio-political condition of Muslim South Asia, 1707–1757 51

3. Social and moral decay in Muslim South Asia, 1707–57 66

PART 2

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF SHĀH WALĪ ALLĀH

4. Wali Allāh and his family 75

5. Wali Allāh and contemporary politics in South Asia 95

6. Wali Allāh and the Third Battle of Panipat 117

7. Society, economy and polity in Wali Allāh’s thought 133
PART 3
SHĀH WALĪ ALLĀH’S CONTRIBUTION TO ISLAMIC RENAISSANCE

8. Wali Allāh: the intellectual and academician 157
9. Wali Allāh’s descendants and the revival of Islamic education 164

PART 4
THE INFLUENCE OF SHĀH WALĪ ALLĀH ON LATER ISLAMIC MOVEMENTS

10. Wali Allāh and the jihād movement 189
11. Wali Allāh and the First War of Independence 205
12. The revival of Islamic education under Wali Allāh and his associates 220
13. Wali Allāh and the emergence of Islamic institutions 232
14. Scholars of the Wali Allāhī tradition 238

Conclusion 253

Bibliography 263
Index 277