Religious Pluralism in South Asia and Europe

Edited by
Jamal Malik and Helmut Reifeld

Oxford University Press
Contents

Preface  vii
  Helmut Reifeld

List of Contributors  x

Introduction  1
  Jamal Malik

I  LEGITIMIZATION OF PLURALITY  21

Historical Roots of Plurality in Europe  23
  Mark Häberlein

Religions of India: Plurality and Pluralism  42
  T. N. Madan

Plurality of Religion and Plurality in Religion: Christianity and Islam  77
  Christian W. Troll

French Laïcity: Representations and Realities  107
  Claire de Galembert

Multiculturalism, Communitarianism, and Liberal Pluralism  120
  Michael Dusche

II  INDIVIDUAL, CHURCH, AND COMMUNITY  145

Multiple Identities and Communities: Re-contextualizing Religion  147
  Margrit Pernau
Invisible Religion between Individualization and Cultural Defense

Monika Wohlrab-Sahr

Denial of Plurality: Thinking of Conversion through Gandhi

Sudhir Chandra

III LIVING PLURALITY

Religious Plurality in the Chishti Tradition: A Case Study of the Khanqah at Salon in Awadh

Saiyid Zaheer Husain Jafri

Spaces of Encounter and Plurality: Looking at Architecture in Pre-colonial North India

Monica Juneja

Transition from the Syncretic to the Plural: The World of Hindi and Urdu

Salil Misra

Telling the Story of Communal Conflicts in South Asia: Interim Report on a Personal Search for Defining Myths

Ashis Nandy