The Importance of Not Being Earnest
The feeling behind laughter and humor

Wallace Chafe
University of California, Santa Barbara
Table of contents

Preface xi
Symbols used in transcribing laughter xiii

CHAPTER 1
Introduction 1
Studies of laughter 4
The present data 7
Seriousness and nonseriousness 8
Pseudo-plausibility 9
Fiction and nonfiction 10
Nonseriousness as a safety valve 11
Summary 13

PART ONE How we laugh

CHAPTER 2
The essential ingredients of laughter 17

CHAPTER 3
Varieties of laughter 25

CHAPTER 4
Laughing while speaking 41

CHAPTER 5
Beyond the vocal tract 51
Smiling 51
Internal changes 54
The brain 56
Humor and health 57
PART TWO  Why we laugh

CHAPTER 6  The feeling of nonseriousness
  What is an emotion?  61
  Properties shared among different emotions  66
  The evolution of the feeling of nonseriousness  68

CHAPTER 7  Nonseriousness without humor
  Undesirable situations  74
  Profanity  74
  Uncertain choice of language  75
  Interrupting  76
  Self-deprecation  76
  Regret  77
  Embarrassment  78
  Criticism  78
  Things that are disgusting  80
  Things that are depressing  80
  Bereavement  81
  Abnormal situations  82
  Something anomalous  82
  Something surprising  82
  Anthropomorphizing  83
  Awkwardness  83
  Coincidence  84
  Unexpectedness  84
  Other nonhumorous causes of laughter  85

CHAPTER 8  Unplanned humor
  Building humor on humor  90
  Humor or not humor?  94
  Ridicule  94
  Opportunistic triggering of humor  96
CHAPTER 9
Planned humor in oral traditions  99
  Jokes  99
  The time course of a joke  100
  Eye movements  102
  The varying effectiveness of jokes  103
  Devices for joke enhancement  104
  Other forms of preplanned oral humor  113
  Riddles  113
  Knock knock jokes  113
  Limericks  114

CHAPTER 10
Planned humor in writing  117
  Film  117
  Artificially propagated nonseriousness  118
  Literary satire  120

CHAPTER 11
Humor in other cultures  127
  Navajo humor  127
  Chinese humor  129
  Iroquois humor  130
  Japanese humor  132

PART THREE  Pulling things together

CHAPTER 12
Recapitulation  137

CHAPTER 13
Reconciliation with other studies  139
  Plato  140
  Hobbes  141
  Ludovici  141
  Gruner  142
  Bergson  143
CHAPTER 14

Coda 157

References 159

Index 165