The Geography of Perversion

Male-to-male Sexual Behaviour outside the West and the Ethnographic Imagination, 1750-1918

Rudi C. Bleys
Contents

Acknowledgements v
List of Abbreviations vii
Introduction 1
   Historiography and context 3

1 The Pre-Enlightenment Legacy 17
   Sodomy and the shock of the new 19
   Constructing the New World's sexuality 22
   The tropicalization of 'abominable sin' 36
   Puritanism, sodomy and ethnicity 39
   Europe's quest for paradise 40
   Sodomy, hermaphrodites and the mapping of mankind 45

2 The Enlightenment, Natural History and the Sodomite (c. 1750-c. 1815) 63
   From 'act' to 'minority' 64
   At the homefront 81

3 Race, Sex and the Semiotics of Genitalia (c. 1810-c. 1870) 110
   Continuity and change 111
   The moral rhetoric of prophylaxis 126
   The empiricism of analogy 128
   Pre-Darwinian evolution theory and sex history 134

4 'Mapping' Homosexual Vice (c 1860-c. 1918) 145
   Outside Europe: imperial anxieties 147
   Inside Europe: the civilizing mission within 151
   The parameters of sexual science 152
   The new inventory of homosexual deviance 160
   Comparative ethnology and the matrices of homosexuality 185
5 Homosexual Emancipation and the Paradoxes of Universality
(c. 1860-c. 1918)
Medicalization and emancipation of the 'third sex'
The poetics and politics of anthropology
Armchair anthropology and subcultural politics
Männerfreundschaft, decadence and exile

Conclusion

Bibliography
Primary sources
Secondary literature

Index