Contents

Note on Orthography ix

1. Introduction: Situating the Ideology of Hindu Nationalism 1

2. The State and the Hindu Religion in the Nineteenth Century 24
   The Organization of the State and the Disorganization of Society
   The Pressure to Organize
   Establishing Patterns of Organization:
   Hindu Movements in the Late Nineteenth Century

3. Indian Nationalism and Representations of Hinduism towards the End of the Nineteenth Century 68
   The Development of Nationalist Organization
   Undermining Ideas of Hindu Organization
   Practising the Organization of Hinduism

4. Imagining the Constituency of Hindus in the Early Twentieth Century 99
   The Dynamism of Indian Nationalism
   Caste, the Census and the Development of Hindu Consciousness
   The Hindu Sabha Movement:
   Organization as Paramount Objective
5. Contextualizing Hindu Nationalism:
The Development of Political Discourse in the Post-War Years
Towards a New Discourse of Organization
Situating 'Others': Hindu Identity and Communal Consciousness in the Early 1920s

6. Organization and the Development of Hindu
Nationalism in the Twenties
The Organization of Hindu Nationalism I:
The Hindu Mahasabha
The Organization of Hindu Nationalism II:
The Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh
Reviewing Approaches to the Organization of Hinduism

7. Conclusion
Glossary of Indian Terms
Bibliography
Index