THE NEW CAMBRIDGE MODERN HISTORY

VOLUME XII

THE SHIFTING BALANCE OF WORLD FORCES

1898-1945

A second edition of Volume XII
The Era of Violence

EDITED BY

C. L. MOWAT

CAMBRIDGE
AT THE UNIVERSITY PRESS

1968
CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTORY SURVEY:
ON THE LIMITS OF MODERN HISTORY

By C. L. Mowat, Professor of History, University College of North Wales, Bangor

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Changing views of history</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Scope of this volume</td>
<td>1-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Some characteristics of the century</td>
<td>2-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>'Modern' or 'contemporary'</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A new kind of world</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Advances in science and technology</td>
<td>5-6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Effects of two world wars</td>
<td>6-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>'One world'</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER II

THE TRANSFORMATION OF SOCIAL LIFE

By David Thomson, Master of Sidney Sussex College and Lecturer in History in the University of Cambridge

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The standards of living and social changes in different regions</td>
<td>10-11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Growth of population; movements of people</td>
<td>11-12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Urbanisation</td>
<td>12-13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The influence of cheap transport</td>
<td>13-14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>New conditions in industry</td>
<td>14-15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Changes in social structure</td>
<td>15-16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The sharpening of class conflicts in different countries</td>
<td>16-17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nationalism</td>
<td>17-18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rising standards of living</td>
<td>18-20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vital statistics in Europe</td>
<td>19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Improvement in health</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Property more insecure</td>
<td>20-1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mass unemployment</td>
<td>21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Demand for social justice</td>
<td>22-7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Universal suffrage; the status of women</td>
<td>22-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Attitudes towards the family</td>
<td>24-6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Free public education</td>
<td>26-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mass emotion</td>
<td>28-9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social services in Europe</td>
<td>29-32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fiscal policies</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Full employment</td>
<td>31</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mounting expenditure on amenities and luxuries</td>
<td>32</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The popular press; the cult of sport</td>
<td>33-6</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS

CHAPTER III
THE WORLD ECONOMY: INTERDEPENDENCE AND PLANNING

By ASA BRIGGS, Vice-Chancellor and Professor of History, University of Sussex

First world war as a dividing line ........................................ page 37
Temporary nature of pre-1914 system ................................. 37-9
1900-13: rise in industrial production .................................. 39
Europe the centre of economic power .................................. 40
United Kingdom industry geared to world trade ..................... 40-1
Growing influence of the U.S.A ........................................... 41-2
United Kingdom as 'conductor of the orchestra' ..................... 42
Sources of discontent and disturbance ................................. 43
Origins of twentieth-century interventionism ......................... 44
Social insurance; tariffs; cartels and trusts ............................ 45-6
Socialisation of large-scale enterprise ................................. 46
Imperialism ........................................................................ 47
Japan .............................................................................. 47-8
Effect of wartime controls .................................................. 48
Wartime economic mobilisation in Germany ......................... 49
Gradual expansion of controls in the United Kingdom .......... 49-50
Economic disorganisation in Russia ..................................... 50-1
International economic co-operation .................................... 51
Collapse of planning after 1918 .......................................... 51
German and French experiments ......................................... 52
Instability of the post-war world ........................................ 53-4
Waste of manpower and resources ...................................... 54-5
Internal inflation; reparations and war debts ....................... 55-6
Europe's dependence on the U.S.A ..................................... 56
Return to gold .................................................................... 57
Poverty in the midst of plenty ............................................. 58-9
Collapse of economy of the U.S.A.; the Great Depression ...... 59
Financial collapse in Europe .............................................. 60
The United Kingdom abandons free trade and gold .............. 61
The U.S.A. abandons gold; the New Deal ............................ 62-3
Management rather than planning ...................................... 64-6
Soviet planning .................................................................. 66-70
German planning under National Socialism ....................... 70-5
World population, production and trade ............................. 75-7
Need for world-wide monetary system ................................. 77-8
Place of Europe within the world economic system ............. 79-80
Social policies .................................................................... 81
Assistance from the U.S.A. .................................................. 82
National growth rates .......................................................... 83
Need to redefine economic 'interdependence' ....................... 84-5
Overall planning .................................................................. 85-6
CONTENTS

CHAPTER IV

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

By DOUGLAS MCKIE, Professor Emeritus of the History and Philosophy of Science in the University of London

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Changes towards the end of the nineteenth century</td>
<td>87-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Radioactivity and electrons</td>
<td>87</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rapid advances in the twentieth century</td>
<td>88</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Astronomy: vastness of the universe</td>
<td>89</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Researches of J. J. Thomson and Rutherford</td>
<td>90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transmutations</td>
<td>92</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Atomic weights and numbers</td>
<td>93</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Changing scope of sciences</td>
<td>94</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vitamins and hormones</td>
<td>95</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organic chemistry; new drugs</td>
<td>96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Crystallography; physiology</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Geology; meteorology</td>
<td>97</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Physics; quantum theory; relativity</td>
<td>98</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Biology; genetics</td>
<td>99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Descent of homo sapiens</td>
<td>100</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Medicine; fevers; immunisation</td>
<td>101</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The internal combustion engine; aeroplanes; rockets</td>
<td>101</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Electricity; wireless</td>
<td>102</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Atomic fission</td>
<td>103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Secrecy imposed on scientists by war</td>
<td>103</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Metallurgy</td>
<td>104-5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Plastics; artificial fibres; atmospheric nitrogen; dyestuffs</td>
<td>105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Advances in food production and preservation</td>
<td>106</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other technological advances</td>
<td>106-7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Alliance between science and technology</td>
<td>107</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Scientific education</td>
<td>107-9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Development in research</td>
<td>109-10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Exchange of knowledge</td>
<td>110-11</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER V

DIPLOMATIC HISTORY 1900-1912

By J. P. T. BURY, Fellow of Corpus Christi College and Lecturer in History in the University of Cambridge

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The Triple Alliance, and the Franco-Russian Alliance</td>
<td>112</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Far East: China and Japan</td>
<td>113</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Boxer risings (1900)</td>
<td>114</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Near East: Turkey and Germany</td>
<td>115</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Clash between Great Britain and France in Egypt</td>
<td>117</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>South Africa: the Boer War (1899-1902)</td>
<td>118-19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Expansion of the U.S.A.</td>
<td>119</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Growth of armaments</td>
<td>120</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>France and Russia, and Italy</td>
<td>120-1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Failure of attempts at rapprochement between Great Britain and Germany</td>
<td>122-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anglo-Japanese Alliance (1902)</td>
<td>124</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russia and Japan in the Far East</td>
<td>125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anglo-French Entente (1904)</td>
<td>127</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS

First Moroccan crisis: Tangier (1905) ........................................ page 128-9
Germany and France, and Russia ........................................... 129-30
Algeciras Conference (1906) .................................................... 130-1
Anglo-Russian Convention (1907) ........................................... 131-2
Events leading to the Balkan crisis ....................................... 132-3
Effects of annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (1908) ....... 133-4
Germany's naval programme and propaganda ......................... 136-7
Second Moroccan crisis: Agadir (1909) ................................... 137-8
Strengthening of Anglo-French Entente .................................. 139
Italy and Tripoli (1911) .......................................................... 139

CHAPTER VI

THE APPROACH OF THE WAR OF 1914

By J. M. K. VYVYAN, Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge

'First world war' not world-wide ............................................ 140
Remote and immediate origins ............................................... 140
German reaction to Moroccan agreement ................................ 141
Abortive Anglo-German naval talks ...................................... 141
Redisposition of the British and French fleets ......................... 143
France, Russia and the Balkans ............................................. 143-4
Austro-German relations in the Balkan crisis ......................... 144
The Balkan War (1912) .......................................................... 145
Tension between Austria and Serbia: Albania ......................... 145-6
Peace Conference in London (1912) ....................................... 146-7
Scutari episode (1913) .......................................................... 147
Treaty of Bucharest (1913) .................................................... 148
Austria, the Balkans and Germany ....................................... 149
Compromise on German military mission to Turkey ............... 149-50
Russian rearmament ............................................................. 150
French military service law ................................................. 151
Anglo-German negotiations on extra-European issues ............. 151
Stabilisation in Near East and Africa .................................... 151
Habsburg Empire ripe for dissolution .................................... 152
German military dominance .................................................. 152
Sarajevo (28 June 1914) .......................................................... 153
Austrian policy approved by Kaiser ....................................... 154
'Levity rather than a grand design' ...................................... 155
Preparation of Austrian note to Serbia ................................. 155
Germany's blind eye ............................................................. 156
Franco-Russian policy; Great Britain; Germany ................. 157-9
Austrian ultimatum to Serbia (23 July) ............................... 160
Partial mobilisation in Russia (25 July) ............................... 161
British proposal for a conference rejected by Germany ........... 161
British warnings ................................................................. 163
Lack of co-ordination in Berlin ........................................... 164
General mobilisation in Russia the decisive calamity (30 July) .. 165
British public unaware of possible results; breach of Belgian neutrality by Germany (4 August) the crucial factor ........................................ 166-8
Britain guarantees the northern coasts .................................. 168
Neutrality of Italy, Rumania, Bulgaria and Turkey ............... 169
A 'scrap of paper' ............................................................... 169
CONTENTS

CHAPTER VII

THE FIRST WORLD WAR

By BRIAN BOND, Lecturer in War Studies, King’s College, University of London

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Warnings ignored</td>
<td>171</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>General staffs take charge; Germany well organised</td>
<td>171–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Inferior quality of Austro-Hungarian army</td>
<td>172</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>French manpower ill-equipped and poorly used</td>
<td>172–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Marginal role of British Expeditionary Force (B.E.F.)</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Central powers hold aloof</td>
<td>173</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany’s need for a quick decision in the west</td>
<td>173–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Disruption of French plans</td>
<td>174</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Liège and Mons</td>
<td>174–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Failure of the Schlieffen plan</td>
<td>175</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Marne (Sept. 1914)</td>
<td>175–6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trench warfare stabilised</td>
<td>176</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Initial Russian success turned to failure</td>
<td>176–7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Naval strategy</td>
<td>177</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Submarine warfare</td>
<td>177–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The German colonies</td>
<td>178</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Air warfare</td>
<td>179</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany on the defensive in the west</td>
<td>179–80</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Small gains in trench warfare; poison gas</td>
<td>180–1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Heavy casualties among Allies</td>
<td>181</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>West v. East controversy</td>
<td>181–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dardanelles (March 1915)</td>
<td>182–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Undue deference to generals</td>
<td>183–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The demands of total warfare</td>
<td>184</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Shell shortage and problems of manpower</td>
<td>185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Italian bargaining</td>
<td>186</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Defeat of Serbia (1915)</td>
<td>187</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mesopotamia (1916)</td>
<td>187</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>German offensive in the west; Verdun (Spring 1916)</td>
<td>187–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russian failure</td>
<td>188–9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Somme battles (Feb.–Nov. 1916)</td>
<td>189–90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>First use of tanks</td>
<td>190</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Leadership</td>
<td>191</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jutland (31 May 1916)</td>
<td>191–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rumania defeated</td>
<td>192–3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lloyd George</td>
<td>193</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Allied offensive planned for 1917</td>
<td>193–4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Peace feelers</td>
<td>194</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Nivelle’s failure (1917)</td>
<td>194–5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mutinies in French army</td>
<td>195</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Passchendaele (July–Nov. 1917)</td>
<td>196–7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Statistics of casualties</td>
<td>197–8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Effects of Russian Revolution</td>
<td>199</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Critical submarine menace; the convoy system</td>
<td>200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Italian crisis; Caporetto (Oct. 1917)</td>
<td>200</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Renewed German offensive in spring of 1918</td>
<td>200–2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Foch, Supreme Commander (March 1918)</td>
<td>202</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
CONTENTS

Arrival of U.S. troops (June 1918) .......................... page 202-3
Defeatism in the German army .................................. 203
Allied advance in August 1918 ................................. 203-4
Germany sues for an armistice (3 Oct. 1918) .................. 204
Causes of German defeat ........................................ 204-5
A struggle of attrition .......................................... 205
New means of mobility .......................................... 206
Spread of nationalism .......................................... 206-7
Propaganda ..................................................... 207

CHAPTER VIII

THE PEACE SETTLEMENT OF VERSAILLES
1918-1933

By ROHAN BUTLER, Fellow of All Souls College, Oxford

Armistice, 11 Nov. 1918 ......................................... 209
President Wilson’s ‘fourteen points’ .......................... 209
Reservations in authoritative commentary .................... 210
Isolationism and idealism in the U.S.A. ....................... 211
Peace Conference subject to pressure of current events .... 212
Food shortages; blockade of Germany ......................... 213
Problems of new nationalities .................................. 214
French claims on Rhineland .................................... 215
Draft treaty submitted to unconsulted Germans .............. 215-16
Some British modifications ...................................... 217
Reparations and war indemnities ............................... 217-19
The Germans sign (28 June 1919) ............................. 219
Main provisions of the treaty .................................. 219-21
German resentment .............................................. 221-2
Treaties with Austria, Bulgaria and Hungary .................. 222
The new map of Europe ......................................... 222
Central Europe balkanised ...................................... 223
Self-determination .............................................. 223-4
An uneasy western alliance ..................................... 224-5
Italian grievances .............................................. 225
The U.S.A. refuses to sign the treaty ......................... 226
French security jeopardised .................................... 226-7
Greek expedition to Smyrna (May 1919) ..................... 228
Near East: British and French at odds ....................... 228
Turkey; Mustafa Kemal ......................................... 228
Divergence between Britain and France ....................... 229-30
Allied debts ................................................... 230-1
Occupation of Ruhr (1922) ..................................... 231-2
Reparations; Dawes plan (1923) ............................... 232-3
Locarno Treaty (1925); Germany enters League of Nations .. 233-4
Kellogg Pact (1928) ............................................ 234
German evasion of military limitations ....................... 234-6
Stresemann’s policy .......................................... 236-8
Disarmament: a moral obligation ............................. 238
Naval agreements (1921-2) ................................... 238-9
Preparatory Commission on disarmament ..................... 239
Economic blizzard ............................................. 239-40
Settlement undermined ......................................... 241
CONTENTS

CHAPTER IX

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS

By the late J. L. Brierly, Professor of International Law in the University of Oxford; revised and rewritten by P. A. Reynolds, Professor of Politics, University of Lancaster

Covenant of League part of peace treaties ........................................ page 242
Constitution: Assembly and Council; unanimity rule ..................... 243
An international secretariat created ............................................. 244
Permanent Court of International Justice; the optional clause ........ 244
Purpose of the League: international peace and security ................. 245
Serious effect of the absence of the U.S.A. ................................... 246
Disarmament: Temporary Mixed Commission .................................. 247
The Geneva Protocol (1924) ...................................................... 248-50
Locarno Treaty (1925) ............................................................. 250
Germany admitted to the League (1926) .................................... 251
Kellogg Pact (1928) ............................................................... 252
Disarmament Conference fixed for February 1932 ....................... 253
Germany withdraws from the Conference .................................... 253
The U.S.S.R. admitted to membership (1934) ............................. 253
Disputes: Aaland Islands, Vilna, Corfu ....................................... 254-5
Japan's invasion of Manchuria (1931) ........................................ 256
China's appeal to the League .................................................... 256-7
Lytton Commission censures Japan; Japan gives notice of withdrawal 257
Other disputes: Bolivia and Paraguay, Colombia and Peru .......... 257-8
Italy's attack on Abyssinia (Ethiopia) ........................................ 258
League's dilatory proceedings ineffective ................................... 258
Italy gives notice of withdrawal (1937) ...................................... 260
The U.S.S.R. expelled after attack on Finland (1939) .................... 260
Helplessness in face of German aggression on Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland 260
The International Labour Organisation ........................................ 261
Communications and transit ...................................................... 261
Rehabilitation of Austrian finances ............................................ 262
World Economic Conferences (1927, 1933) ................................ 262-3
Health Organisation; refugees; Central Opium Board ................... 263-4
Intellectual Co-operation .......................................................... 264
League's inadequate financial resources ...................................... 264
Studies of particular problems ................................................... 264-5
Mandates Commission; minorities .............................................. 265-6
Danzig; the Saar Basin ................................................................ 266-7
League superseded by the United Nations (1946) ......................... 268

CHAPTER X

THE MIDDLE EAST 1900-1945

By E. Kedourie, Professor of Politics in the London School of Economics, University of London

Traditional Muslim society and European society .......................... 269
European techniques strengthened absolutism in Ottoman Empire .... 269
Young Ottomans forced a constitutional change (1876) ............... 270
Centralisation made coup d'état easier ....................................... 271
CONTENTS

Young Turk Revolution (1908) ........................................ page 271
The 'Saviour Officers' and the rise of Enver Bey ............... 271-2
Iran an old-fashioned oriental despotism ....................... 273
Rivalry between Great Britain and Russia ....................... 273
The tobacco protest (1891–2) ........................................ 273-5
Murder of Nasir al-Din Shah (1896) ................................. 275
Promised reforms not carried out ................................... 276-7
Fundamental Laws (1906, 1907) ....................................... 278
Muhammad Ali Shah abolishes the Constitution ................. 279
Continued Russian pressure .......................................... 280
Riza Khan proclaims himself Shah (1925) ........................ 280-1
Egypt under British control ........................................... 281
Egyptian independence recognised (Feb. 1922); the Wafd .... 281-2
Anglo-Egyptian Treaty (1936) .......................................... 283
Constitutionalism in Iraq a fiasco ................................... 283-4
British mandate; King Faisal ......................................... 284
French conquest of Algeria ............................................ 285
Treaty of Ouchy (1912); Tripoli ceded to Italy ................. 285
Treaty of Fez (1912); French protectorate over Morocco .... 285
Nationalist aspirations after second world war ............... 286
Great Britain, France and Russia and the Ottoman Empire ... 287
Sykes–Picot Agreement (1916); the Treaty of London (1915); Agreement of St Jean de Maurienne (1917) .............. 287
Complications resulting from these and other understandings 288
The Balfour Declaration (1917), an ambiguous document .... 289
Long drawn-out negotiations between France and Great Britain 289-90
Greeks in Smyrna (1919) ............................................. 290
Rise of Mustafa Kemal; Treaty of Lausanne (1922) ............ 290-1
Sultanate and caliphate abolished (1924) ........................... 291
French mandates over Syria and the Lebanon .................... 292
British mandates over Mesopotamia and Palestine .............. 293
Iraq enters the League of Nations (1932) ......................... 294
Problems of Palestine mandate ..................................... 294
Jewish immigrants from Nazi Germany ............................ 295
British and French in Syria ............................................ 296
League of Arab States .................................................. 296

CHAPTER XI

INDIA AND SOUTH-EAST ASIA

1. India, by Percival Spear, Fellow of Selwyn College and Lecturer in History in the University of Cambridge

2. South-East Asia, by D. G. E. Hall, formerly Professor of the History of South-East Asia, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London

I. INDIA

Cultural as well as political and economic issues .................. 297
Curzon as viceroy; the partition of Bengal ....................... 297-8
Morley–Minto reforms and the easing of tension ................. 298
Industrial and cultural stirrings .................................... 299
Impact of the first world war, of the Russian Revolution and of the 'fourteen points' ........................................... 299-300
Government of India Act (1921) .................................... 300
CONTENTS

Extra-territoriality abolished (1899) ................................................. page 332
China: a cumbrous government and a dynastic decline ...................... 332–3
Britain exacts concessions .................................................................. 333
Sino-Japanese war (1894) .................................................................. 333
Rivalry between Western powers ....................................................... 334–5
The Boxer Rebellion (1900) ............................................................... 335
Russia and Manchuria ....................................................................... 336
Japan and Korea ................................................................................ 336
Anglo-Japanese Alliance (1902) ........................................................ 336–7
Attempted rapprochement between Japan and Russia ....................... 338
Russo-Japanese War (1904–5) ............................................................. 338–9
Japan annexes Korea and covets Manchuria ................................. 339–40
The weakness of China; autonomy of provincial governments ....... 340
Sun Yat-sen; the republic; Yüan Shih-k'ái ........................................ 341–2
Effects of first world war ................................................................... 342–3
German ports and islands .................................................................. 342–4
Japan’s Twenty-one Demands (1915) .............................................. 344–5
Chinese capitulation ......................................................................... 345
Death of Yüan (1916) and subsequent political disorder ................. 346
The U.S.A. and Allies and China during the war ............................. 346
China declares war on Germany .......................................................... 347
The U.S.A. recognises Japan’s ‘paramount interest’ in China ......... 347–8
Impact of Russian Revolution ............................................................ 348
Allies support Russian anti-revolutionary forces ............................ 349
Decline of French and British influence in the Pacific ................. 349
Peace Conference (1919): mandates .................................................. 350–1
Chinese put their case before the Conference ................................. 351–2
Japan’s demands granted except for claim to racial equality ....... 352–3
Washington naval talks; Anglo-Japanese Alliance not renewed .... 353–6
China and Japan ............................................................................... 356–7
Great expansion of Japanese economy ........................................... 357–60
The Japanese empire; Formosa and Korea ...................................... 360
Effect of Great Depression ................................................................. 361
China as a field for foreign investment; the ‘open door’ .......... 361–3
Tariff conference in Peking (1925) fails owing to deterioration of conditions in China ................................................................. 365
Russia settles differences with China ............................................... 365
Spread of Communist ideas ............................................................... 366
Nationalist government under Chiang Kai-shek at Nanking ......... 366–7
Growing anti-British feeling; increase in U.S. influence ............. 367
Nationalists in Peking ........................................................................ 369
The Manchurian question ................................................................. 369–70
Japan recognises new régime in China .......................................... 370
Renewal of civil war in China ............................................................. 371
Japan seizes Mukden (1931) .............................................................. 371
Military dominance in Japan .............................................................. 371
Japanese invasion of China (1937), a major cause of the second world war ................................. 372

xiv
CONTENTS

CHAPTER XIII
THE BRITISH COMMONWEALTH OF NATIONS

By J. C. BEAGLEHOLE, Emeritus Professor of British Commonwealth History, The Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand

Unpopularity of the British Empire at the turn of the century
Changes in Victorian conception of empire
Differences in status and powers
Aversion to the word ‘empire’
Semi-British societies
Racial problems in Canada and South Africa
Economic and industrial expansion
End of suggested imperial federation
Demand for consultation
Effect of first world war; Dominion Prime Ministers and the Peace Conference
The problem of Ireland
Dominions act independently
Constitutional crisis in Canada (1925)
‘Autonomous communities’
Precise definition avoided; conflicting interpretations; Statute of Westminster (1931)
Each Dominion building its own diplomatic pattern
Ottawa Conference (1932)
The Dominions and the League of Nations
Independent declarations in second world war
Ireland’s neutrality
Canberra pact between Australia and New Zealand (1944)
Complicated history of the colonies since first world war
The poverty of the colonial peoples
‘Dual mandate’, and ‘indirect rule’
Tendency to accept status quo
Contrasts in conditions of native peoples
Mandates
Between the wars
British grants for colonial projects
Constitutional development after 1945
India, Pakistan, Ceylon
Failure of federation in the West Indies
National self-government

CHAPTER XIV
THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

By the late ISAAC DEUTSCHER

Culmination of a long process
Comparison with the French and English Revolutions
Lack of real parliamentary institutions in tsarist Russia
Poverty and discontent of peasantry accentuated by disorganising effect of the first world war
Industrial backwardness
Progressives alarmed at defeatist influences round the Tsar
CONTENTS

Assassination of Rasputin (Dec. 1916) .......................................................... page 407
Ever-increasing chaos ....................................................................................... 407
Elemental power of revolution not realised at first ............................................. 407-8
Sequence of events, Feb.-March 1917 ................................................................. 408-9
The provisional government and the Petrograd soviet ......................................... 409-10
Government's determination to continue the war .................................................. 410
Soviets in close touch with popular moods .......................................................... 410-11
Soldiers' deputies admitted to Petrograd soviet .................................................... 411
Four phases of events between the abdication and the seizure of power by the Bolsheviks ............................................................................................................. 412-13
Cleavages between Mensheviks and Bolsheviks .................................................... 413-14
Socialist Revolutionaries ..................................................................................... 415
The Petrograd soviet leaders .................................................................................. 416
Attitudes towards the war ...................................................................................... 417
Clamour for reform in the countryside ................................................................. 418
Postponement of a constituent assembly ............................................................... 418-19
Arrival of Lenin (April 1917) and the demand for proletarian dictatorship ............. 419-20
Shrewdness and elasticity of the Bolsheviks ......................................................... 421-2
Collapse of Russian offensive in the south-west ................................................... 422
Temporary eclipse of Bolsheviks; flight of Lenin (July 1917) ................................. 422-3
Coalition under Kerensky and his clash with Kornilov ......................................... 423-4
Germans capture Riga; momentous shift to left .................................................... 424
Bolsheviks gain a majority in the Petrograd soviet ................................................. 425
Kerensky convenes a Democratic Conference ..................................................... 425
Return of Lenin (Oct. 1917) .................................................................................. 426
Insurrection under Trotsky ..................................................................................... 426-7
Revolutionary Military Committee ..................................................................... 427
The October Revolution; Bolsheviks in control .................................................... 427-8
Council of Peoples' Commissars under Lenin ...................................................... 429
The Peace of Brest-Litovsk (March 1918) ............................................................. 431
Civil war ............................................................................................................... 432
Foundations of a single party system .................................................................. 433

CHAPTER XV

THE SOVIET UNION 1917-1939

By GEORGE KENNAN, Professor in the Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton

Outstanding problems ......................................................................................... 433
Small support for Bolsheviks; danger to them of elections .................................. 433-4
Socialist Revolutionaries split ............................................................................. 434
Elected Assembly suppressed .............................................................................. 434
The problem of the war ....................................................................................... 434-5
Punitive Treaty of Brest-Litovsk (March 1918) ..................................................... 435
The peasantry; opposition to Communists; separatist tendencies ......................... 436-7
Allied military intervention; extravagant expectations ......................................... 437-41
Massacre of the Tsar and his family (July 1918) .................................................... 442
Triumph of Communist forces ............................................................................ 443
Soviet-Polish war (1920) ..................................................................................... 443
The Russian Federated Soviet Socialist Republic ................................................ 444
Régime of terror .................................................................................................. 445
Relations with other countries ............................................................................. 445
High degree of centralisation ............................................................................. 446
CONTENTS

Drastic lowering of living standards; labour unrest ..... page 447-8
Kronstadt mutiny (Feb. 1921) ..... 448
New Economic Policy (NEP) ..... 448
Famine (1921-2) ..... 449
Rapid recovery; the kulak; the NEP men ..... 450-1
Death of Lenin (21 Jan. 1924) ..... 451
Stalin as General Secretary of the Party ..... 452
Suppression of Lenin’s political testament ..... 453
The triumvirate against Trotsky ..... 453
Stalin eliminates rivals ..... 454
Foreign relations: the Rapallo Treaty (1922) ..... 454
New constitution; Union of Socialist Soviet Republics (USSR) ..... 455
Trotsky banished (1927) ..... 455
Economic recovery ..... 456
Relations with Germany, Great Britain and China ..... 456-7
Propaganda trials (1928-33) ..... 458
Goal of an industrial and military autarky ..... 458
Collectivisation: an agrarian revolution ..... 458-9
First Five-Year Plan (1929) ..... 459
Liquidation of the kulaks ..... 460
Intensive programme of industrial construction ..... 461
Appalling conditions by 1932; famine ..... 462
Death of Stalin’s wife (Nov. 1932) ..... 463
Two new factors: Nazis in Germany, Japanese in Manchuria ..... 463-4
Change in foreign policy; Litvinov as Foreign Minister ..... 464-5
Stalin’s reign of terror ..... 465-7
The Spanish Civil War ..... 467-8
Breakdown of negotiations with Britain and France ..... 468
German-Soviet Pact (Aug. 1939) ..... 468-9
Survey of Russian society and economy since the revolution ..... 469-72

CHAPTER XVI
GERMANY, ITALY AND EASTERN EUROPE

By Elizabeth Wisckemann

Vitality of the German Empire ..... 473
The Reichstag could criticise but not control ..... 473-4
Tortuous character of Wilhelm II ..... 474
Influence of the General Staff ..... 474
Results of rapid industrialisation ..... 474-5
Gulf between classes ..... 475
Three million Poles alienated ..... 476

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY 1900-1914

Austria predominantly Slav ..... 476-7
Government under the Emperor Francis Joseph ..... 477
Magyar domination in Hungary ..... 477-8
Austria-Hungary an anomaly in Europe ..... 478
The great landed magnates ..... 479
Effect of the annexation of Bosnia ..... 480

THE BALKAN PENINSULA

Nationalist aspirations unsatisfied ..... 480
Effect of Turkish régime ..... 481

xvii
CONTENTS

Serbia the Slav centre ........................................ page 481
Violent emotional clash between nationalities ............... 481
The Balkan War (1912) ........................................ 482

ITALY 1900–1914

New social problems ........................................... 482
Industrialisation of northern Italy ............................ 482–3
Moderate social reforms ....................................... 483
The State and the Vatican ..................................... 483
Extreme poverty of the south ................................ 484
Demand for an aggressive foreign policy .................... 484
Italy’s declaration of war against Austria-Hungary (May 1915) 484

THE AFTERMATH OF THE FIRST WORLD WAR

Dream of a Great-German world power ....................... 485
Italian gains ..................................................... 485–6
Mussolini’s rise to power and the end of all freedoms .... 486–7
‘Stabbing the German army in the back’ ..................... 487
German minorities in the Austrian succession states ..... 487–8
Spartakists and Communists in Germany .................... 488
Locarno (1925) .................................................. 488
Industry and poverty concentrated in Vienna .............. 489
Czecho-Slovakia under Masaryk ............................... 489
Yugoslav Triune Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes 490
Landed magnates regain control in Hungary ................. 490
The new Poland and its problems ........................... 490–1
The Baltic provinces ......................................... 491
Turkish resurgence under Kemal .............................. 491
Breakdown of parliamentary government in Poland and Yugoslavia 491

THE GREAT DEPRESSION: HITLER BECOMES GERMAN CHANCELLOR

End of prosperity in Germany and the rise of Adolf Hitler . 492
Collapse of Austrian finances ................................ 492
National Socialism in Germany ............................... 493–4
Hitler becomes Chancellor (Jan. 1933) and seizes full power 494–5
Spread of totalitarian ideas in Austria and Hungary .... 495–6

‘GLEICHSHALTUNG’ IN GERMANY AND AUSTRIA

Suppression of liberties in Germany ......................... 496
Hitler’s aims .................................................... 497
A ruthless police state ........................................ 497
The Churches and Nazism .................................... 498
Final break with pre-1914 ruling class ...................... 498

CZECHOSLOVAKIA 1929–1938

A satisfactory constitution ................................... 499
The Sudeten Germans ......................................... 499–500
An approach to Russia ........................................ 500
The German occupation of Austria (March 1938) .......... 501
Czechoslovakia destroyed (March 1939) ..................... 501
The German Mitteleuropa ..................................... 502
CONTENTS

THE ATTACK UPON POLAND EXPANDS INTO A SECOND WORLD WAR

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Steel Pact between Germany and Italy</td>
<td>502</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pogrom in Germany</td>
<td>503</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Poland's attempted appeasement of Germany</td>
<td>503</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lebensraum</td>
<td>504</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Collapse of France</td>
<td>504</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Balkan peninsula subdued</td>
<td>504-5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany's attack on Russia (June 1941)</td>
<td>505-6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reign of terror extended; the extermination of the Jews</td>
<td>506</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Guerrilla warfare in the Balkans</td>
<td>507</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>North Africa, and Stalingrad</td>
<td>507</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Industrial unrest in Italy; arrest of Mussolini (25 July 1943)</td>
<td>507-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Russian advance</td>
<td>508-9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Attempted assassination of Hitler (20 July 1944)</td>
<td>509</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Allies invade France</td>
<td>509</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rumania and Bulgaria desert Germany</td>
<td>510</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Poles and Hungarians revolt</td>
<td>510</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The swan-song of east European aristocracy</td>
<td>511</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER XVII

GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, THE LOW COUNTRIES AND SCANDINAVIA

By Maurice Crouzet, Inspecteur général de l’Instruction publique, Paris. Translated by K. Lloyd-Jones, Lecturer in French, University College of North Wales, Bangor

The transformation of society                                             512

THE POLITICAL SYSTEM AND THE ORGANISATION OF SOCIETY AT THE BEGINNING OF THE CENTURY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Universal suffrage, but representation in the hands of the ruling class</td>
<td>513-14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trade Unions and socialists</td>
<td>514</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

GOVERNMENT BY THE LIBERAL BOURGEOISIE: 1900-1914

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Political rather than social problems dominant</td>
<td>514</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Dreyfus affair (1899)</td>
<td>514-15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>French parties and groupings</td>
<td>515</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social conservatism and revolutionary trade-unionism</td>
<td>516</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reawakened nationalism</td>
<td>517</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Military service law</td>
<td>517-18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social democratic parties in Scandinavia</td>
<td>518</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Holland and Belgium</td>
<td>518-19</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Problems of the Liberal government in Great Britain (1906)</td>
<td>519-20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Party truce at outbreak of first world war</td>
<td>521</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dissensions leading to virtual war-dictatorships</td>
<td>522-3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>State controls and labour problems; the working-class movement</td>
<td>523-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Victory followed by disturbances</td>
<td>524-5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conservative hegemony in Great Britain</td>
<td>525</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Social and cultural advances</td>
<td>525</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bloc National Républicain in France</td>
<td>525-6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tripartite union in Belgium</td>
<td>526</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The neutral countries</td>
<td>526-7</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The Inter-War Years 1921-1939

Post-war problems .................................................. page 527
French attitude to Great Britain and Russia .................. 527
Delays in dealing with economic and social problems in France .. 527-8
Transformation of the classes of society ....................... 528-9
New industrial bourgeoisie ......................................... 529
Demands for an authoritarian régime in France ................ 530
Political conditions in Great Britain and France compared .... 530-1
Weakened of European currencies ................................ 531
Labour government in Great Britain (1924) ...................... 531-2
The General Strike (1926) ......................................... 532
Influence of banking interests in France ....................... 533
The Great Depression; policy in Great Britain ................. 534
British Union of Fascists .......................................... 536
Rearmament ................................................................ 536
Effects of Depression in Scandinavia and the Netherlands .... 537-8
Crisis of parliamentary system in France ...................... 539
Various movements; spread of totalitarian ideas; 6 Feb. 1934 .... 541-2
Front populaire ....................................................... 542
Rising hopes in the working class ................................... 542
Drift to the right; ruling class intent on revenge .......... 543
Public opinion in disarray .......................................... 544
Belgium as disturbed as France ..................................... 544-5

The Second World War 1939-1945

British economy strictly controlled ............................... 547
The Beveridge Report ................................................ 547
Labour in power, 1945 ............................................... 547
Vichy France; an arbitrary régime ................................ 548
Collaboration and resistance ....................................... 549-50
Sweden's neutrality .................................................. 550
Norway, Denmark and Holland occupied (Apr.-May 1940) ... 550-2
Occupation of Belgium less oppressive ......................... 552
Resistance in France ................................................ 552-4
Socialist parties become reformist ............................... 555

Chapter XVIII

The United States of America

By Sir Denis Brogan, Emeritus Professor of Political Science in the University of Cambridge

Theodore Roosevelt, President (1901-9). Republican .......... 556-60
Panama .................................................................... 558-9
William Howard Taft, President (1909-13). Republican ..... 560-1
Woodrow Wilson, President (1913-21). Democrat .......... 561-4
'The New Freedom' .................................................. 561-2
Mexico ..................................................................... 562
First world war ........................................................ 562-3
Republicans reject Treaty of Versailles ......................... 564
Warren Gamaliel Harding, President (1921-3). Republican 564-8
Ku-Klux-Klan; prohibition; corruption ......................... 566-8
Calvin Coolidge, President (1923-9). Republican .......... 568-9
CONTENTS

‘The business of the United States is business’ ........................................ page 570-1
Herbert Hoover, President (1929-33). Republican ................................ 571-3
The Great Depression ................................................................. 571-3
Franklin Delano Roosevelt, President (1933-45). Democrat .................. 573-82
The New Deal ........................................................................... 574-8
Latin America ............................................................................. 577
Unemployment insurance ............................................................. 577-8
The Supreme Court .................................................................... 578-9
Industrial unrest .......................................................................... 579
Foreign relations; ‘cash and carry’; Lend-Lease ................................. 580-1
Pearl Harbour (7 Dec. 1941) ....................................................... 581
The United Nations ...................................................................... 583
The changed position of the U.S.A. .............................................. 583

CHAPTER XIX

LATIN AMERICA

By J. H. Parry, Professor of Oceanic History, Harvard University

Political independence only; end of European interference .................. 584
Pan-Americanism ......................................................................... 584-5
Brazil; Argentina ........................................................................... 585-6
Chile; Mexico ............................................................................... 586-8
Dependence on exports ............................................................... 588
Latin-American Catholicism ......................................................... 589
Vigorous intellectual life .............................................................. 589-90
Progress in Argentina ................................................................. 590-1
The Mexican Revolution (1910-11) .................................................. 591
Intervention by the U.S.A. ............................................................. 592
Theodore Roosevelt’s policy ........................................................... 592-3
Dollar diplomacy .......................................................................... 593-4
Growing importance of Latin America in world affairs ...................... 594-5
The first world war; the League of Nations ....................................... 594-5
Economic effects of the war ........................................................... 595-6
Foreign investment ........................................................................ 596
Chile’s economic plight ................................................................. 596-7
Argentine and Uruguayan beef industry ........................................... 597
A period of peace and prosperity .................................................... 597-8
Oil .............................................................................................. 598
Concern for welfare of labour ......................................................... 598-9
Constitutional radicalism ............................................................... 599-600
The Great Depression ................................................................... 601
A period of revolutions: Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Mexico .................. 601-5
Urge towards economic independence .............................................. 605-6
The Pan-American idea; ‘good neighbour’ policy ............................... 606-8
The second world war .................................................................... 608-9
Perón in Argentina ......................................................................... 610
Strengthening of constitutionalism ............................................... 610-11
Decline in world trade ................................................................. 611
CONTENTS

CHAPTER XX

LITERATURE 1895-1939

By A. E. Dyson, Senior Lecturer in English Studies, University of East Anglia

Significance of Hardy's Jude the Obscure ........................................ 613
Henry James's late novels ............................................................ 614-15
E. M. Forster; Rudyard Kipling; Joseph Conrad .................................. 615-19
Need for endurance; change and violence ........................................ 619-20
Thomas Hardy as a poet .................................................................. 620-1
War poetry: Rupert Brooke and Wilfred Owen .................................... 621-2
The Georgians; the Imagists ............................................................ 623-4
What is 'modern'? ........................................................................... 625
Joyce's Ulysses; Eliot's The Waste Land ........................................... 626-30
Scott Fitzgerald; Franz Kafka; D. H. Lawrence .................................. 630-2
Ironists ......................................................................................... 632-3
Poets of the 1930s ......................................................................... 633-4
Graham Greene; George Orwell ........................................................ 634-5
Drama: Ibsen, Strindberg, Chekhov, Shaw ........................................ 635-8
Irish dramatists .............................................................................. 638-9
American dramatists ...................................................................... 639-40
The poetic drama ............................................................................ 640
Lapis Lazuli .................................................................................... 641-3

CHAPTER XXI

PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGIOUS THOUGHT

1. Philosophy, by Renford Bambrough, Fellow and Dean of St John's College and Lecturer in Moral Science in the University of Cambridge

2. Religious Thought, by the Very Reverend W. R. Matthews, K.C.V.O., formerly Dean of St Paul's

1. PHILOSOPHY

The philosophical situation at the turn of the century ......................... 644-6
English-speaking idealists .................................................................. 646
Principia Mathematica ...................................................................... 646
Ludwig Wittgenstein ......................................................................... 647-9
The Vienna Circle ............................................................................ 649
Ayer's phenomenalism ..................................................................... 649-51
'Linguistic' philosophy ..................................................................... 653
Neglect of historical studies in philosophy ......................................... 653
Anglo-Saxon and Continental philosophy .......................................... 655-6
Existentialism .................................................................................. 656

2. RELIGIOUS THOUGHT

Naturalism ...................................................................................... 656
Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Freud ........................................................... 657
Meaning in history .......................................................................... 657-8
Nature in religion .............................................................................. 658-9
The times not propitious for the discussion of religious ideas ............... 659
Liberal Protestantism ....................................................................... 659-60
Modernist movement ....................................................................... 660 xxii

CONTENTS

Social gospel .......................................................... page 661
‘The historical Jesus’ ................................................ 661-2
Restatement of orthodox doctrines .................................. 662
Mysticism ................................................................. 662-3
Barth’s theology of crisis .............................................. 663
Russian and Eastern Orthodox writers .............................. 663-4
The Ecumenical movement ........................................... 664

CHAPTER XXII
PAINTING, SCULPTURE AND ARCHITECTURE
By M. E. Cooke, Senior Lecturer in History and the History of Art, University College of North Wales, Bangor

PAINTING
A revolutionary art .................................................... 665
Divisionism and symbolism ........................................... 665
Fauvism; cubism; ‘Papier Collé’ ..................................... 665-7
Futurism; expressionism; abstraction .............................. 668
Dada; surrealism ......................................................... 670-1
The German Bauhaus .................................................. 671
‘Unit One’ ................................................................... 672

SCULPTURE
Recovery under Rodin .................................................. 673
Futurist and surrealist sculpture ................................... 674

ARCHITECTURE
The influence of William Morris .................................... 675-6
Art Nouveau .................................................................. 676
Frank Lloyd Wright ..................................................... 676-7
Developments in Austria and Germany ........................... 677
Gropius ...................................................................... 677-8
1919-23: a heyday of ideas .......................................... 679-80
Le Corbusier ............................................................... 680-2
England and America .................................................. 682
Scandinavia; Italy ....................................................... 683
Le Corbusier again ...................................................... 683

CHAPTER XXIII
DIPLOMATIC HISTORY 1930-1939
By D. C. Watt, Reader in International History in the London School of Economics, University of London

Effect of economic crisis on political issues .................... 684
Germany’s approach to Austria ..................................... 685
Breakdown of international order in the Far East ............. 685-6
France in search of allies ............................................. 687
The World Disarmament Conference (1932) .................... 687-8
German approach to France ......................................... 688-9
Isolationism of the U.S.A. ............................................ 689
Collapse of World Economic Conference (1933) ............. 689-90

xxiii
CONTENTS

Hitler's plans .......................................................... page 690
Crisis in Austria ........................................................ 691
Germany and Japan leave the League of Nations ............... 691
British arms programme ............................................... 692
Japan and China ........................................................ 692
German–Polish non-aggression pact ................................ 693
Failure of putsch by Austrian Nazis ................................ 694
Laval and Mussolini ...................................................... 694–5
The Stresa Conference (1935) ........................................ 695–6
Franco-Soviet pact (1935) .............................................. 696
Abyssinia (Ethiopia); sanctions against Italy ................. 696–8
The Hoare–Laval understanding ...................................... 698
Smaller nations disturbed ............................................. 699
Turkey at Montreux Conference (1936) ......................... 700
Belgium to be 'exclusively Belgian' ................................ 700
U.S.A.: Neutrality Act (1937) ......................................... 700–1
'Gentleman's Agreement' between Great Britain and Italy ... 701
The established order of the 1920s shattered ................... 701–2
Japan and China .......................................................... 702–3
Anti-Comintern Pact (1936) ........................................... 703–4
Civil War in Spain; reactions of powers ......................... 704–6
Hitler's attitude to Great Britain .................................... 706–7
Neville Chamberlain's policy .......................................... 707–8
European position at the end of October 1937 ................. 709
United front in China ....................................................... 709–10
President Roosevelt's 'quarantine' speech ....................... 710–11
The U.S.A., Great Britain and China ............................... 711–12
British hopes for a settlement ....................................... 712–13
Another Austrian crisis ............................................... 714
Anschluss by force (March 1938) .................................... 715
The Sudeten German problem ......................................... 715–16
Russian proposals ......................................................... 716–17
Threats to Czechoslovakia ............................................. 717–18
Sudeten settlement impossible ....................................... 718–19
Renewed Russian efforts .............................................. 719–20
Meetings between Chamberlain and Hitler at Berchtesgaden and Godesberg (15 and 22 Sept. 1938) ..................... 720–1
The Munich Conference (29 Sept. 1938), and its effects ....... 722–3
Polish and Hungarian reactions ....................................... 723
End of Spanish Civil War (Jan. 1939) ............................... 724
Collapse of negotiations between China and Japan ............ 724–5
German occupation of Bohemia and Moravia (March 1939) .... 725–6
Danzig and the Corridor ................................................ 726
Hitler disconcerted by British reaction to Munich ............. 727
War-nerves ................................................................. 728–9
Failure of moves for collective action ............................. 729
Italy invades Albania (April 1939) ................................ 729
Change in Russian policy .............................................. 730
The 'Pact of Steel' (May 1939) ....................................... 731
Abortive British–Russian negotiations ............................. 731
Nazi–Soviet pact (23 Aug. 1939) .................................... 733–4
War .............................................................................. 734
CONTENTS

CHAPTER XXIV

THE SECOND WORLD WAR

By Sir Basil Liddell Hart

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Failure between the wars to appreciate role of mechanical power</td>
<td>735-6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tank-cum-air theory accepted in Germany and Russia</td>
<td>737</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Out-dated attitude of cavalry men</td>
<td>737-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reluctance of Britain to mechanise</td>
<td>738</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany able to build a small army of high quality and mobility</td>
<td>739</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Failure to check Hitler in the Rhineland</td>
<td>740-1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Austria and Czechoslovakia</td>
<td>741</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The German blitz on Poland</td>
<td>742-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Phoney War</td>
<td>745</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany moves into Norway and Denmark</td>
<td>746-9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Germany attacks France</td>
<td>749-52</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dunkirk (26 May–4 June 1940)</td>
<td>753-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>France forced to ask for armistice (21 June 1940)</td>
<td>755-7</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Britain’s perilous position</td>
<td>757-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Why did Hitler halt?</td>
<td>758-9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Extension of war to the Mediterranean</td>
<td>759</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wavell’s success in North Africa</td>
<td>759-61</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Fatal Greek diversion</td>
<td>761-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rommel’s successes</td>
<td>764-5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Far East defences neglected</td>
<td>765</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>German invasion of Russia (22 June 1941)</td>
<td>766-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>German repulse at Moscow</td>
<td>768</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reasons for the German failure in Russia</td>
<td>769</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Stalingrad (Feb. 1943)</td>
<td>770</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Japanese successes</td>
<td>771-5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>British retreat in North Africa; Tobruk (June 1942)</td>
<td>776-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>First battle of Alamein the turning point</td>
<td>779</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>British advance and Anglo-American landing in North Africa (Nov. 1942)</td>
<td>779-82</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Defeat of German–Italian army in Africa</td>
<td>782-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sicily and the Italian campaign</td>
<td>785</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Allied armies land in Normandy (6 June 1944)</td>
<td>785-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Russian offensive maintained</td>
<td>789</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>End of war in Europe (8 May 1945)</td>
<td>790</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>End of war in Far East (8 Sept. 1945)</td>
<td>791-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The atomic bomb: was its use justified?</td>
<td>792-3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Superior industrial power and material resources with sea power brought victory</td>
<td>794</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Comments on strategy</td>
<td>794-7</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER XXV

DIPLOMATIC HISTORY OF THE SECOND WORLD WAR

By Sir Llewellyn Woodward, formerly Professor of Modern History in the University of Oxford and Professor in the Institute for Advanced Study, Princeton

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Hitler exaggerated faults of earlier régimes</td>
<td>798</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>His dealings with Italy, Japan, Russia and Vichy France</td>
<td>798-9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The ‘New Order’</td>
<td>799-800</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

XXV