THE OXFORD HANDBOOK OF

PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

Edited by

HARVEY SIEGEL

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS
2009
CONTENTS

Contributors ix

Introduction: Philosophy of Education and Philosophy 3
Harvey Siegel

PART I AIMS OF EDUCATION

1. The Epistemic Aims of Education 11
   Emily Robertson

2. Moral and Political Aims of Education 35
   Harry Brighouse

3. Tagore, Dewey, and the Imminent Demise of Liberal Education 52
   Martha Nussbaum

PART II THINKING, REASONING, TEACHING, AND LEARNING

4. Thinking, Reasoning, and Education 67
   Richard Feldman

5. Why Fallibility Has Not Mattered and How It Could 83
   Jonathan E. Adler

6. Indoctrination 104
   Eamonn Callan and Dylan Arena

7. Educating for Authenticity: The Paradox of Moral Education Revisited 122
   Stefaan E. Cuypers

8. The Development of Rationality 145
   David Moshman
9. Philosophy and Developmental Psychology: Outgrowing the Deficit Conception of Childhood 162
   Gareth B. Matthews

10. Socratic Teaching and Socratic Method 177
    Thomas C. Brickhouse and Nicholas D. Smith

11. Educating the Practical Imagination: A Prolegomena 195
    Amélie Rorty

PART III MORAL, VALUE, AND CHARACTER EDUCATION

12. Caring, Empathy, and Moral Education 211
    Michael Slote

13. Kantian Moral Maturity and the Cultivation of Character 227
    Marcia W. Baron

14. The Persistence of Moral Skepticism and the Limits of Moral Education 245
    Elijah Millgram

15. Values Education 260
    Graham Oddie

PART IV KNOWLEDGE, CURRICULUM, AND EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

16. Curriculum and the Value of Knowledge 281
    David Carr

17. Education, Democracy, and Capitalism 300
    Philip Kitcher

18. Art and Education 319
    Catherine Z. Elgin

19. Science Education, Religious Toleration, and Liberal Neutrality toward the Good 333
    Robert Audi

20. Constructivisms, Scientific Methods, and Reflective Judgment in Science Education 358
    Richard E. Grandy
21. Empirical Educational Research: Charting Philosophical Disagreements in an Undisciplined Field  381
   D. C. Phillips

PART V SOCIAL AND POLITICAL ISSUES

22. Educating for Individual Freedom and Democratic Citizenship: In Unity and Diversity There Is Strength  409
   Amy Gutmann

23. Mapping Multicultural Education  428
   Meira Levinson

24. Prejudice  451
   Lawrence Blum

25. Educational Authority and the Interests of Children  469
   Rob Reich

PART VI APPROACHES TO PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION AND PHILOSOPHY

26. Pragmatist Philosophy of Education  489
   Randall Curren

27. Feminist Philosophy and Education  508
   Nel Noddings

28. Postmodernism and Education  524
   Nicholas C. Burbules

Index  535