

DOROTHEE BRANTZ, SASHA DISKO, GEORG WAGNER-KYORA (EDS.)

Thick Space

Approaches to Metropolitanism

[transcript]

Contents

Acknowledgements | 7

Thick Space:

Approaches to Metropolitanism

Dorothee Brantz, Sasha Disko, and Georg Wagner-Kyora | 9

SECTION 1: CONFLICTING CONCEPTS

Metropolises:

History, Concepts, Methodologies

Heinz Reif | 31

Deconstructing “Metropolis:”

Critical Reflections on a European Concept

Ignacio Farías and Susanne Stemmler | 49

Explanans* vs. Explanandum, Freedom vs. Cohesion:

The Conceptual Structure of Urban Sociology

Jan Kemper | 67

The Significance of the Metropolis

Richard Rodger | 85

Metropolitan Research from a Transatlantic Perspective:

Differences, Similarities, and Conceptual Diffusion

Margit Mayer | 105

SECTION 2: ENVIRONMENTS AND IMAGINATIONS

History, Theory, and the Metropolis

Thomas Bender | 125

An Endless Flow of Machines to Serve the City:

Infrastructural Assemblages and the Quest for the Metropolis

Stefan Höhne | 141

Planning Modernism:

Growing the Organic City in the 20th Century

Harold L. Platt | 165

Layered Landscapes:
Parks and Gardens in the Metropolis
Sonja Dümpelmann | 213

SECTION 3: SOCIAL SPACES OF METROPOLITAN CULTURE

Berlin Street Life: Scenes and Scenarios
Wolfgang Kaschuba | 239

Metropolis in Transformation:
Cinematic Topologies of Urban Space
Laura Frahm | 257

Women and the Modern Metropolis
Despina Stratigakos | 279

The Street-Prison Symbiosis:
Urban Segregation and Popular Black Fiction
in 21st Century America
Kristina Graaff | 307

Urban Ethnicity, World City, and the Hookah:
The Potential of Thick-Thin Descriptions in Urban Anthropology
Alexa Färber | 333

The Global, Imperial Metropolis: Ideas from 1873 Berlin
Tim Opitz | 357

Contributors | 379