Social dialogue and pension reform

United Kingdom, United States, Germany, Japan, Sweden, Italy, Spain

Edited by Emmanuel Reynaud

International Labour Office • Geneva
CONTENTS

1 Introduction and summary ................................................. 1
   (Emmanuel Reynaud)

2 The structure of pension reform in the United Kingdom ........... 11
   (Bryn Davies)
   Introduction ........................................................................ 11
   Outline of the public pension system .................................. 12
   The legislative process ...................................................... 13
   Reviewing the pension system: Formal structures .................. 14
   Reviewing the pension system: The practice ........................ 17
   Reviewing the pension system: The Pensions Act 1995 ............ 19
   Conclusions ......................................................................... 23

3 The public pension system of the United States ..................... 25
   (Lawrence H. Thompson)
   Outline of the public pension programme ............................ 25
   Financial oversight ............................................................ 28
   Policy development ............................................................ 30
   The reform process ............................................................ 34
   Strengths and weaknesses of the American approach ............. 35
   Summary and conclusions ................................................... 36
   Selected bibliography ....................................................... 37
7 The public pension system in Italy: Observations on the recent reforms, methods of control and their application ............ 81
(Massimo Antichi and Felice Roberto Pizzuti)
Introduction .................................................................................................................. 81
The influence of the new economic and political climate on pension reform in the 1990s .................................................. 81
Pension reform: Law No. 335 of 8 August 1995 (the Dini reform) ........ 83
Provisions subsequent to Law 335/95, in particular Law 449/97 ............... 87
The role of the Government, institutions and social actors in the process of pension reform ........................................ 88
Conclusions ................................................................................................................. 94

8 The process of pension reform in Spain ................................................................. 97
(Ana Maria Lagares Pérez)
Description of the social security system and current legislation .......... 97
The legislative process applicable to social security .............................................. 98
Role of public bodies involved in the review and reform of the social security system ......................................................... 100
The process of reform: From the Toledo Pact to the law of 15 July 1997 on consolidation and rationalization of the social security system .......................................................... 101
Conclusions ................................................................................................................. 106