Psychology and Law
Theory, Research, and Application

Curt R. Bartol
Anne M. Bartol
Castleton State College
Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1

Introduction 1

Contrasting Psychology and Law Approaches 2
- Psychology in the Law 2
- Psychology and the Law 3
- Psychology of the Law 4

Appellate Court Cases and the Methods of Science 4
- The Frye Test 4
- The Daubert Case 5

BOX 1-1 Federal Rules of Evidence (Effective December 1, 2000) 6

BOX 1-2 Journals Devoted to Psychology and Law 8
- Supreme Court Decisions After Daubert 8

BOX 1-3 Evaluation of Scientific Evidence 9

Ways of Knowing and the Methods of Science 10

Research Methods and Strategies 11
- The Experimental Method 11
- Quasi-Experimental Designs 12
- Survey Research 12
- Meta-Analysis 12
- Legal Research 13

Research Terms and Concepts 13
- Validity 13

Research Strategies 14
- Evidence 14

BOX 1-4 Validity and Reliability of an Equivocal Death Analysis 15
- Replicability 16
- Control 16

Clinical Judgment vs. Statical Prediction 17
- Clinicians and Researchers 18
- Research and the Legal System 19

Psychological Theory 19

Psychologists and Psychiatrists 20

Careers in Psychology 21
- Careers in Forensic Psychology 22

CHAPTER 2

Psychological Assessment, Testing, and the Law 32

Overview of Assessment and Testing 32

BOX 2-1 The Top 11 34

Forensic Classifications of Assessment and Testing 35

BOX 2-2 Assessment Measures and Techniques—Some Examples 36

Basic Concepts of Psychological Testing 36
- Reliability 36
- Validity 38
- Normative Distribution 40
- Standard Error of Measurement 40

Clinical Measures and Assessment Techniques 41
- Cognitive Tests and Techniques 41
- Cognitive Testing in Forensic Settings 43
- Personality Assessment 44
- Projective Measures 44
- Objective Personality Inventories 45

BOX 2-3 MMPI-1 and MMPI-2—Key Differences 46
- Personality Traits: Specific or General? 47
- Personality Inventories in Forensic Settings 48
Forensically Relevant Instruments and Assessment Techniques 49
   The Psychopathy Checklist Series 49
   Malingering Measures 50
   Risk Assessment Measures 50
   Forensic Neuropsychology 52
Assessment Instruments Used in Forensic Settings 53
   Criminal Responsibility Measures 54
   Competence to Stand Trial Measures 54
   Child Custody Evaluations 55
   MacArthur Research Network on Mental Health and Law 56
Prediction of Human Behavior 57
   The Actuarial vs. Clinical Prediction Debate 59
   Why Clinical Predictions Miss the Mark 60
Testing in Employment 62
   The U.S. Supreme Court and Employment Discrimination 63
BOX 2-4 Fishy Employment Practices? 64
   The Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 65
   Soroka v. Dayton Hudson Corporation 66
Testing in Education 67
   The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act 69
Summary and Conclusions 70
Key Terms 71
Questions for Review 71

CHAPTER 3

Psychology and the Courts: An Overview 72
Organization of the Courts 72
   Federal Courts 75
   State Courts 77
   Public Confidence in Courts 77
   Specialized Courts: Drug and Mental Health Courts 78
BOX 3-1 Domestic Violence Courts 81
Classifications of Law 81
   Content Classifications 81
   BOX 3-2 Due Process 83
   Classifying by Origin 84
The Judicial Process 84
   Pre-Trial Stage 85
   Trial Stage 87

CHAPTER 4

Mental Health Law: Competencies and Criminal Responsibility 103
Legal Competencies and Mental Capacities: Definitions 103
Competency to Stand Trial 105
   Legal Standards 105
   Incidence of Competency To Stand Trial Evaluations 107
   An Example: Cooper v. Oklahoma 107
   The Competency Evaluation Process 108
   Forensic Assessment Instruments 109
   The Incompetent Defendant 113
   Drug Treatment in Competency Issues 115
BOX 4-1 The Rusty Weston Case 116
BOX 4-2 Synthetic “Sanity” at Trial: Riggins v. Nevada 117
Insanity
   Insanity Standards 118
The M’Naghten Rule: The Right and Wrong Test 120
   BOX 4-3 Tests for Insanity in State and Federal Courts 121
   The Durham Rule: The Product Test 121
   The ALI and Brawner Rules 122
   Insanity Defense Reform Act of 1984 123
   Insanity Defense: Related Changes 123
Frequency of Insanity Defense and Acquittals 125
Juries and the Insanity Defense 127
BOX 4-4 Competency, Insanity, and the Supreme Court—Cases and Principles 128
NGRI and Its Outcomes 129
Clinical Assessment of Sanity 130
Legal Issues Involving the Forensic Evaluation 133

Special Conditions and Unique Defenses 133
Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) 134
Multiple Personality Disorder 136
Amnesia 137

Summary and Conclusions 137
Key Terms 139
Questions for Review 139

The Psychology of the Jury: Procedural Considerations 175

Overview of Jury Procedures 175
BOX 6-1 The Sixth and Seventh Amendments 176
Jury Research 177
Jury Selection 177
The Venire and Voir Dire 178
Challenges in Jury Selection 178
BOX 6-2 Equal Opportunity in the Jury Box (J.E.B. v. Alabama) 179
Research on Voir Dire Practices 180
Impact of Lawyers on Jurors 181
Scientific Jury Selection 182
BOX 6-3 High-Profile Cases Using Scientific Jury Selection 183
Death Sentencing 184
Risk Assessment at Capital Sentencing 185
The Death Qualification Process 186
Jury Size and Decision Rule 188
Jury Size 188
BOX 6-4 Solomon Asch’s Classic Conformity Study 190
The Dynamite Charge 191
Conclusions on Jury Size 191
Decision Rule 192
Jury Instructions 192
Types of Instructions 193
Research on Jury Instructions 194
The Effects of Joined Trials 196
Improving Jury Competence 197
Jury Nullification 198
BOX 6-5 Should Jurors Be Told . . . ? 199
CHAPTER 7

The Psychology of the Jury: Jury Decision Making 204

Overview 204
BOX 7-1 The Chicago Jury Project 205
The Effects of Defendant and Victim 207

- Physical Attractiveness 207
- Social Attractiveness 208
- Attitudinal Attractiveness 209
- Other Defendant Characteristics 210

BOX 7-2 The Capital Jury Project 211
Juror Characteristics and Decision Making 212

- The Story Model 212
- Strength of the Evidence 214
- Hindsight Bias 214
- Just World Hypothesis 215
- Authoritarianism 217

Group Processes 219

- Deliberation Style 219
- Polarization 220
- Leniency Bias 221
- Effects of Expert Testimony 221

Jury Simulation: Critiques and Conclusions 221

- Conclusions on Simulation Research 223
Summary and Conclusions 224
Key Terms 225
Questions for Review 225

CHAPTER 8

The Psychology of Evidence: Eyewitness Testimony 226

Human Perception and Memory 227

- Perception 227
- Memory 228

BOX 8-1 Eyewitnesses to Crime Often Inaccurate 229
- Repressed Memory 230
- System and Estimator Variables 232

Situational Factors of Eyewitness Testimony 232

- Temporal Factors 232
- Detail Significance 233

Witness Factors: Perceptual and Acquisition Influences 237

- Witness Arousal and Stress 237
- Expectancies and Stereotypes 238
- Witness Memory: Retention Factors 240
- Witness Confidence: Retrieval Factors 240
- Effects of Drugs and Alcohol on Witness Testimony 242
- Trivial Persuasion 243

Children as Witnesses 243

BOX 8-2 Cautionary Instructions 244
- Children's Memory and Testimony 245
- Reality Monitoring 245
- Children's Suggestibility and Their Testimony 246
- Communication Modality 248
- Stress, Memory, and Suggestibility 249

Older Witnesses 250
Identifying Characteristics of the Offender 251

- The Face 251
- Unconscious Transference 252
- Face Recognition 252
- Own-Race Bias (ORB) 253
- Reasons for ORB 254

Pre-trial Identification Methods 255

- Legal Considerations 255
- Lineups 256
- The Lineups White Paper and the NIJ Guide 259

Summary and Conclusions 260
Key Terms 261
Questions for Review 261

CHAPTER 9

Psychology of Evidence and Related Issues 262

Criminal Interrogation: Psychology of Confessions 262

- Legal History of Coerced Confessions 263
- Interrogative Tactics 264
BOX 9-1 What is Truth Serum? 266
Juvenile Delinquency and Justice 375

Juvenile Crime 375

History of Juvenile Justice 376

Early Juvenile Courts 377

Due Process and Statutory Changes 377

Supreme Court and Juvenile Justice 378

Juvenile Delinquency 381

Developmental Theory 381

BOX 12-1 The Supreme Court and Juveniles 382

Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) 384

Special Topic: School Violence 385

The Juvenile Justice Process 386

Early Processing 386

Delinquency Petitions 387

Disposition 387

Competency to Waive Constitutional Rights 388

Role of Psychologists 389

Adjudicative Competence 390

Age and Developmental Considerations 391

The MacArthur Project and the Role of Psychologists 391

Ethical Considerations 392

Juveniles Found Incompetent 393

Conclusions 393

Transferring Juveniles to Criminal Courts 394

Waiver Options 394

Role of Psychologists 396

Juvenile Rehabilitation 397

Amenability for Rehabilitation 397

Prevention and Treatment of Juvenile Offending 399

The Psychology of Criminal Behavior 408

Psychological Criminology 409

Neuropsychological and Genetic Influences on Criminal Behavior 410

Defining Crime 412

Crime Statistics 413

Official Statistics 413

BOX 13-1 Definitions of Crimes in the UCR 414

BOX 13-2 The UCR and September 11 415

Self-Report Surveys 417

Victimization Surveys 417

Demographics of Crime Victims 418

The Psychopath 419

The Psychopathy Checklist (PCL) 421

Juvenile Psychopathy 423

Gender Differences in Psychopathy 423

Psychosocial Factors of Criminal Behavior 424

Cognitive-Social Learning Theory 424

Deindividuation 426

Prediction of Criminal Behavior 427

Crimes of Intimidation 428

Stalking 428

Hate or Bias Crimes 429

BOX 13-3 The Supreme Court and Hate Crimes 431

Violent Crimes: Sex Offenses 432

Sexual Assault: Definition and Prevalence 434

Prevalence and Incidence of Rape 435

Psychological Correlates of Rapists 436

Etiology or Explanations for Sexual Assault 438

Pedophilia 439

BOX 13-4 The Paraphilias 440

Psychological Effects of Child Sexual Abuse 442